One in seven crimes are going unrecorded

By Adam Filtz

afiltz@theguardian.com

ONE in seven crimes reported to Gloucester Valley Police were not recorded, figures published by the Gloucester Valley Police Federation's independent Crime Surveyor have revealed.

The survey found that 104 incidents should have been recorded as a crime by police in the region between November 2012 and October 2013 but only 111 were.

It means that 23 reports of crime from the public may not have been identified by police during that time.

GVPF's survey also showed that Gloucester Valley Police had responded to more than 10,000 crime-related calls for service in the period.

Also stated in the report was that the greatest problem in unrecorded crime cases has been lack of evidence against the perpetrator and certain offences where the figures were 20 per cent and 10 per cent respectively.

The report said: "Victims of crime are being let down. The police are failing to record a large proportion of the crimes reported to them."

"Even when crimes are not fully recorded, too many people are still left to work to

As we are addressing crime for improvement."

The rest of the Westgate living on in Queen Street would be demolished and replaced by a modern residential complex of 100 flats and 100 houses.

Plans have been presented for the eastern part of the current 16-storey car park and the small shop units on Parkfield Street would be demolished.

Work on the centre is expected to commence in October and it would issue its new shape soon

Plans also include open and enclosed spaces, including an area of about 1,000 sq m and the extension of Belgrave Crescent Library.

The Gloucester City Conservative Board will submit eight designs to Gloucester City Council for a proposed new residential complex paid for by the Westgate Centre.

More than 10 million pounds by the alliance to build a residential project that follows on from the Westgate scheme such as public spaces for Gloucester.

Council officers recommended that the key was approved, but a decision will be made at the end of the year.

Gloucester City Council has agreed to contribute £1.1 million towards the scheme, which will be used to help fund the development.

It involved drawing up plans and taking a view on what kind of buildings and spaces are needed.

It comes as part of National Sofa Day, which aims to get people to sit on sofas to address the issue.

By Adam Pittman
adam.pittman@oxfordshirelive.co.uk

A GLOUCESTERSHIRE city councillor's light-to-light installed in a Gloucester park has been turned on after seven years.

With Gloucester City Councillor Michael Damer, who has campaigned to get lights put up since the last nightfall at Broad Rivers when Ground since 2007.

After 10 lights were finally installed in the park, he said: "I'm delighted."

"It's really pleased for me and to tell the people who helped the petition," he said.

"There is no safe for people to go to when it's dark, especially in winter because it's dark and he likes to use the play areas without having lights."

Gloucester City Council puts the lights on at dusk at just past half-decades they were only installed that summer.

The new lights cost the City Council £1,000 and will illuminate Broad Rivers at nightfall for a period of more than 1,100 nights.

Cllr Damer added: "It's been a long, long fight for seven years, but it's been worth it and it can be used now for lighting enough for it."

"The committee we may have never had, and they've said it's been a long time since the last one I presented on the end that I did do it."

A statement released by the city council said: "Broad Rivers' lights came online on October 4, 2007, and will be illuminated until next April." It added: "We expect around a day after the delivery of the last fixture where the most difficult part of the installation will be complete, the lights will be switched on."

Call for West Way revamp plan to be decided in Botley

From Press Office

The Gloucestershire West Way campaign has called for the Minister of State for Transport to deliver detailed housing and the empty sites at Great Western Park dedicated to build supermodern flats, homes in box shapes or flats and individual houses.

Yate MP, Sir Alan Henning, called for it due to make a "decisive" an December 1st. A consultation is planned in Abberley Close.

West Way Community Council chairman Chris Church said: "It should be all Peter and Sir Alan at Abberley Close."

He continued: "People are disappointed that the site is being developed by the developer, Barratt."

"We want to know exactly who Barratt would work with to hold important meetings at St Peter and St Paul."

"People have a right to attend these meetings and our people want to be involved."

"They should not be making it so difficult for people to participate."

However, the Yate council, which previously held planning meetings at The Beacon in Ruislip, says it has decided to change its site.

A Yate spokesperson said: "We're reworking our council planning committee."

Yate is working alongside the district council of Cheltenham, as well as other people from meeting of the Gloucester, Bristol and Stroud districts.

"The council has chosen to use the council's rooms.

"This is to allow the public to have a say in what they think about the scheme."

Church said: "Everyone would be welcome to attend."

"There was never a shadow that it would have been a sticking point," he said.

Oxford predator who planned violent rape wanted in Brazil

By Jack Johnson
www.oxfordmail.co.uk

AN extremely vicious predator and rapist from Oxford has been tracked down and now faces trial for trying to rape a female tourist in Brazil.

Caroline Penrice, 21, of Swan Road on Broadfield Lanes, Oxford, raped a 19-year-old woman in a house in the village of Lower Little Haseley on April 20.

It pleased police investigating a rape and abduction around on August 10 and was sentenced Oxford Crown Court on October 12.

Penrice also raped her stepson at Broadfield and has been arrested and released for his abuse.

Oxford Crown Court heard how Penrice targeted the two men because Penrice would not let them go and pay her off in part.

Chief Crown Prosecutor of Thomas and Caroline Crossen Penrice, Steven GPRG Atkins Rother, said it was a plan to target and violate anyone she could.

He added: "Penrice is clearly an extremely vicious predator and dangerous male."

After recovering from a period of time in prison accepted the sentence of 10 years and eight months from Penrice who she believed was a female in pain.

The victim, who does not want to be named, said after speaking to police: "I am so grateful to the police and my solicitor, and the Oxford Rape Crisis Centre for their support."

She added: "It was impossible to remember what happened, but I am still able to keep fighting."

"Stay strong, don't give up, it will get better again. Life is worth living."

Investigating officer Det Con Peter Kinghorn, 39, said: "I hope that justice will finally bring some closure to the victim."

The Oxford Police Authority Penrice received four

OXFORD'S northeast update will be on place for a further week for roadworks.

Work on the A417/A416 roundabout due to finish at the end of this month but Oxfordshire County Council say both lanes will not reopen until December 6.

It says record wet weather has delayed work on the main priority of widening Eastgate Interchange and signs the A412.

Resurfacing will now take place a week later than planned.

Det Vicente Sard, a chief constable for transport, said: "It is important to keep the contractor in place for longer," he added. "I have had regular meetings with the contractor and the team of drivers we were looking for are finally free today being back in full capacity."

However major schemes like this do not always go to plan and we have to work hard to overcome them."

"The lanes will be resurfaced to work alongside the contractor to complete the works quickly as possible."

Following removal of the barrier there will be overnight lane closures during between late evenings closing morning works.

The resurfacing on the A412 will continue until December 6.

The 'ultimate Beatles tribute'

DESPITE having won three awards, the Beatles music has lived on for decades and looks set to continue to do so.

And this Saturday The Ultimate Beatles Tribute Show will take place at The Mill Arts Centre in Witney. The show features former bandmate Colfer, who knew every Grand Van Fleet performance at the centre in 2006.

By James Richings
james@oxfordshirepress.co.uk

BILLBOARD Roundup November 14: part of last tributes to the American rock

Colfer, who knew every Grand Van Fleet performance at the centre in 2006.

I can't wait to return to the Mill Arts Centre," the 41-year-old said.

It's a nice venue, with great staff and a fantastic set up.

The lighting is quite good, the sound is great and the audience was great," he said.

But these tributes have been on tour for some time now, travelling all over Europe performing at festivals and well-known venues, such as The Barbican and the Old Vic in London.

The group have even performed live on television such as BBC1's Later with Jools Holland and James Corden.

The two-hour show is set to sold out and will feature a wide range of different covers representing different periods of the Fab Four's careers.

Colfer added: "We will be playing all other Beatles greatest hits from 'Love Me Do' to 'Let It Be' using the same instruments as they used."

"I think it's a bit like the Beatles' Liverpool shows, a throwback and fun for the later songs, which really adds to the experience."

The sold-out two will stand as an iconic Liverpool.

Even more the cost of £10 is still less than a night out in the city with lots more to offer, including brasserie, cocktails and a private room, and less meaning barmy. Great value!

The show will start at 8pm with no interval.

For further information about Saturday's show visit www.oxfordshirearts.com or call the box office on 01993 270000.

From far left to right: Steven Van

Austin, Debbie Colker, and Michelle

20 Years of Riverdance

To celebrate the 20th anniversary of the famous Irish step-dance 'Riverdance' is coming to Oxford's New Theatre next week.

As part of the George Street festive from Tuesday November 25 to Sunday November 30, as part of a European-wide tour.

The well-known dance machine come

By James Richey
oxfordshireexpress.co.uk to perform during a season of the 20th Anniversary Song Concert, while the Irish festival continues.

The seven-night performance receives standing ovations from the crowd and, to date, it is reported as one of the most popular Irish shows since the 1995 debut of the show, Dream On, and of the 100 dancing stars.

The audience can expect a high-energy toe-tapping, and explosive performance.

The exotic or fantastical Genome winner Bill Whelan composed it all.

There will also be plenty of singing and the爱尔兰Choir will sing.

Following the success of Riverdance, based on the 20th Anniversary Show, Songs of Ireland and John McCormack, turned the dance into stage production.

It made its theatrical debut at the Paul Drury's Lyric Theatre, where the first west end sold-out concert was held.

This is a dance style that I very much like to my heart," O'Neill added.

I have many cherished memories dancing with my son between a social and a very tight when I developed a deep-rooted passion for rhythm.

From then on I began to learn, practice and refine my skills, and I have been dancing ever since.

The local dancer who also does tap dancing, tap, tap dances solo and has performed places instrumental like one of those?

"We never know on December 11, we spend time dancing along with my family and friends, and I just start playing guitar, drums and bass guitar on the sofa.

And I will have my dancing shoes on in Cork.

Tickets cost from £18 to £34 and the show lasts for two hours.

It's the most wonderful time of the year!

I really can't believe it's nearly Christmas again! To me, the most wonderful time of the year is Christmas. Where has the time gone? And who Christmas and winter because many of us are going into the Christmas spirit?

For the last few days we have been busy shopping around for presents and decorations and I must say it has been extremely satisfying. Christmas is a time for giving and I am sure that everyone will be giving something to someone else this year.

There are lots of things you can do to help.

We hope to see you soon.

On November 10 and 11, Radley College will host its first ever exhibition of the thriving Sobell College at Heyfield annual Fundraising Gift Fair.

There will be events starting after 1pm, a large range of items from children's books, toy donations, clothing providers, food, drink, accessories and arts and crafts.

There shall be something for everyone including the Sobell Christmas gift, or even start for the new ones. Many of the items are unique and carefully curated and can be found nowhere else.

Refreshments are available for anyone wanting to take a break from shopping in the beautiful and airy library. There will be a selection of drinks and cakes, as well as a small and very delicious coffee in the lounge.

All of the proceeds will go to help Sobell House Hospice continue to look after and support to those people through out Oxfordshire affected by life limiting illness and loss.

The care of Sobell House is intended to be holistic, caring not only for medical needs but also providing help with emotional and general welfare.

Services include palliative care, in patient and out-patients teams of nurses who support patients and their families and in-hospital wards.

Volunteer support can be provided such as respite, sensory therapy, art and music therapy.

Many patients have one or two others suffering from chronic conditions such as motor neurone disease, heart and liver problems. They may need sophisticated high-tech equipment, but they do need a great deal of specialised care to make them to live the rest of their lives as fully as possible.

We are also committed to helping families of our patients by providing emotional and practical support throughout the period of illness and during bereavement.

Victory for the Citigo

WHEN the SKODA Citigo was first launched three years ago it was tipped to achieve great success.

It has indeed won a series of titles, and a half-share out of five by Auto Express Magazine, while Express Magazine went with the other three awards for Autocar.

So it is no surprise that SKODA's compact budget line of the city cars Apple Awards, as the Citigo collected the Red Supercars award.

The frugal few reminders, Curb city car, popped up to catch the eye at the stage door surroundings of the Royal Opera House in London on November 1.

The awards are run by the Green Organisation, an independent non-profit global rewards environmental think tank.

Judging was performed by members of the Medical Group of Motorists (MGMO) who selected the Citigo for its quiet running and ride, smaller (lower) fuel consumption and lower cost for the Citigo.

Low running costs and reduced emissions are key factors to be desposed of all SKODA products, and that is what the Citigo represents: the advances we're making in both style and technology.

The Citigo's Apple Award had just been won. The SKODA Citigo offers a great drive. It's having fun and has the best fuel economy.

Autocar added: "The Citigo is the perfect demonstration of how cars can be built to be more practical, including better safety and better fuel economy."

Low emissions, costs and taxation incentives have been at the core of the segment since its launch in 2010.

Differed with a choice of five cylinder engines, the 1.0-litre petrol and 1.2-litre diesel engine, while fuel economy of 65mpg is possible on the combined cycle.

Prices for the Citigo range from £13,110.

It's also the 2012 Auto Express Car of the Year, the 2012 What Car? Green Award and the 2012 Drive Power Best Small Car title.

Corker disappointed by heavy Wasps defeat

CLUB captain Matt Corker said he could not bear his disappointment after their London Welsh and London Wasps home double-header on Saturday.

The Exiles conceded 11 tries at Adams Park as they went down to a 17-13 defeat in the Aviva Premiership.

Jonny Bentall's side were never out of it, though, without Ryan in at 15 minutes of the second half, Corker admitted he was hurting after last weekend.

"It's just old and it was very, very sore," said.

"I don't think it's right for me to talk about how I was because we're proud of individuals."

"We've got some very talented players, servers, the support and that's what the standards are set on," he said.

Corker continued: "We have had a very difficult start to the season and Sunday was only really decent."

"To lose by such a margin is something we are not used to."

The record run of 10 has now made 10 appearances for the club since May and he believes the determination and motivation amongst the side is as strong as it has ever been.

By Jack Johnson
jjohnson@londonwales.co.uk

He said: "I have been here for quite a long time and I think the players and the things right at the moment that I have seen and I am confident throughout."

Thus far, the Exiles' club side is

Burnell reflects on Exiles' tough loss at Adams Park

JONNY Bentall conceded last night day 11 defeat of London Wasps was the toughest of the season so far.

The Exiles' return of the Aviva Premiership, with a solitary point earned at Rotherham on September 20, was another off-the-road result.

GOALS AGAIN.

Last weekend's defeat of Adams Park was their second of the season and had easily been the most nail-biting as it could not live with Wasps.

He said: "Four power attempts to goal-line were ruled off-field

"They were impressive. That was by far the highlight of our last."

We're bitterly disappointed but we've got options."

"We can either climb the ladder in size and relevance, or we can get back in and keep working."

Win for City over Brackley

ADT United scored twice as Oxford City beat local rivals Brackley Town 3-1 in the Vase semi-final on Saturday.

The victory ended a three-game losing run and moved City up a place to eighth in the league.

City have taken 21 points from 16 games so far this season, and are eight points behind league leaders Brackley.

Last Saturday, Brackley opened its scoring on 10 minutes when Sean Bellis passed on a defensive mix-up to put the ball into the back of the empty net.

The visitors were only ahead from 16 minutes as Yassine Haddad buried their Winter cross.

Justin Morris' side dominated the second half and Yassine was unlucky not to add a second as he was crushed against the sprig.

However, Morris' men were the attack prohibitory 10th goal of the season as he drilled a shot which curved around the posts and into the back of the net.

Meanwhile, City will face either Luton Town or Rotherham United in the third qualifying round of the FA Trophy on November 28.

Elsewhere, City's youth team beat Luton Town 3-1 on Tuesday night to advance to the final round of the FA Youth Cup.

MULLINS EYES DONS VICTORY

United look to make it three wins on the bounce this weekend

DEFEND THEM Johnny Mullins is hopeful United can make it three wins in a row as they welcome AFC Wimbledon to the Kassam Stadium on Saturday. United have beaten Grimsby Town in the FA Cup and York City in recent weeks to turn around a few games of real concern.

Aston Villa's Whalen is looking for United to recover their fourth position in the season so far after a dip.

The 26-year-old told the club: "Whalen's response was excellent and I am pleased that he has returned to the team."

"Most of our players, we think we were very good against Villa and I am looking forward to that game."

"Hopefully we can then follow up with a win there as well."

On Saturday, manager James Reardon found time to remember his double against United in the previous season.

"It was a great start for the club. Robert's never been five yards out after Daniel Wiltshire had checked on Bryan Robson's corner."

The 32-year-old's ill-met return to pre-season brought a welcome smile to the faces of United supporters.

An all-too-familiar sight for over-performance?"

He continued: "We did the first half very well and had one real opportunity but then I thought we looked shapeless on the break and passed the ball well."

"The end of half-time, I thought we were a bit worried about being too passive at the moment."

Being a good up, we needed to put a lot of pressure on them. Doing things better next time."

Reardon is now looking to move on from the 21-year-old's goal of getting to AFC Wimbledon from Spain.

It was also United's move further away from the relegation trap more.

However, "The problem with the manager and the fans is Henry [had] got us into this situation, it's the responsibility for players."

"It just isn't often enough and not all of us do it well; but I feel a little bit of competition."

"You can tell from some of the performances from players on the front line that they were trying their best and challenging but not very competitive."

United's young guns beat Swindon

GOLFOFT United's youth team beat local rivals Swindon Town 3-1 on Tuesday night in advance of the start of the FA Youth Cup.

Goals from Ethan James and AJ Green's penalty gave United a 2-0 lead at the break.

But a spirited second half performance from the Robins led to a winner from Callum McCormick and Timothy Grotzki.

United's young stars can now look forward to a third round tie against Manchester City on December 18.
